This week at School Headteacher's message

We want to take a moment to celebrate our Year 6 children, who received their SATs results this week. This achievement is not just about results—it's about the journey they've taken to get to this point. They've shown determination, and the strength to overcome challenges, and that is more powerful than any score on a page. But, in terms of scores on a page, the children shone. Their incredible hard work was reflected in their results. 62% percent of Year 6 children nationally achieved the expected standard in Reading, Writing and Maths. 82% percent of our super Year 6 children achieved the combined in Reading, Writing and Maths. These are exceptional outcomes. Even more impressive is that the 100% of our Year 6 children passed their Writing and Maths assessments. Throughout the year, the children have grown in knowledge and character. They've learned the value of perseverance, and the importance of being proud of their own progress, no matter where their starting point was.

As they enjoy their final few weeks of primary school, we want them to make the most of every second. Cherish these moments and make memories – the leavers assembly, trips, the school play, teachers v's students rounders and many sunny afternoons on the school field. Thanks to the PTFA for the Leavers Hoodies and the Camel Creek trip... I know the children had a wonderful time.

We can't wait to see where their journey takes them next. Big shout out to the Little Nippers staff, parent volunteers and, of course, the children. What an amazing experience they had yesterday, going out on the fishing boats. Their little faces, full of joy and wonder, as they climbed aboard and set off, was so special. A memory they will never forget.

Big thanks to Matt Cave and Jonny Collings, who kindly and generously volunteered their time to make this possible. What a phenomenal experience.

Last but not least, a big well done to the children who performed in the Rocksteady Concert and the Piano Recitals this week. It takes so much bravery and courage to play in front of a live audience of children and adults. You were all fantastic and you should be super proud of yourselves! Keep practising, keep playing.

Have a lovely weekend.
